BECKLEY FLAGGED

Admiral Beckley was presented with a beautiful silk American flag by some of his Hilo admirers just before the Kinau left the Hawaii town last week. It was a souvenir given in recognition of the fact that he has been continuous pursuer on the Kinau for over twenty years, traveling more than half a million miles in her. The friends who gave it were Chas. Wright, J. T. Morris, Adam Lindsay, E. N. Holmes, H. V. Patten, H. Vicens and one or two others. There was a little card with it wishing him many more half million mile voyages. The cash value of the flag was not large but the Admiral appreciates the good will it expresses.

GHRAUNT SUBJECT OF KING HENRY SEVENTH

How old is Charles Ghraunt? That is a question that is vexing Land Commissioner Pratt.

Ghraunt is a native of Java and is anxious to acquire some Government land in the vicinity of Hilo. For him to do so, it is necessary that he be a subject of the United States or that he shall have declared his intention of becoming such.

In order to prove to Pratt that he has the right to take up Government land, Ghraunt forwarded his first naturalization papers, taken out in 1902 at Hilo. The clerk of the court there at that time was Daniel Porter and the judge was Judge Little.

In this declaration of intention, Ghraunt, who says he is 62 years old, renounces all allegiance to any potentate, and particularly to King Henry VII, of England.

As King Henry died somewhere in the neighborhood of 400 years ago, the authorities are wondering how old Ghraunt really is.

In any case, the man, being a native Javanese, cannot legally be naturalized. Yet his papers were passed upon by the Court and allowed.—King Henry VII and all.

CONCERT PLANNED FOR OLESON EXPENSE

The Oleson committee met again Friday night at the Kanehameha Boys School and made a decided stand to make the coming Founder's Day a historical affair. Owing to some misunderstanding among the members, the meeting was not very largely attended. S. W. Spencer, the chairman of the Oleson committee, made an inspiring report on the work so far accomplished and urged the members present to help the matter to success. Many suggestions were offered by different members, and President P. L. Horne of the schools, who addressed the meeting, succeeded in getting the committee on its feet again.

The report of Financial Secretary D. Pahu showed a healthy condition of the collections received from the boys, though not sufficiently ample to cover the expenses of Mr. and Mrs. Oleson's coming. At the suggestion of Professor Horne it was decided to have a grand concert on the 25th of this month at the Boys' School. Mr. Livingston, the musical director of the school, will have charge of the concert. Both the old and the new boys, together with the girls, will commence to practice shortly. This same committee will meet again at the boys' dining-room next Wednesday evening at 7:30, and every one present at last night's meeting was requested to bring one other member of the committee on that night. Those appointed on the committee, with proper authority to act, were as follows:

Concert Committee—Prof. Livingston, Dan Pahu, Mrs. Bowers and J. Harbottle Hakuole.

Collection Committee—Wm. Ahia, John Ahau, S. W. Spencer and J. Harbottle Hakuole.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served.

Every member of the Oleson Committee is earnestly requested to be present at Wednesday night's meeting. President Horne has promised to secure some well-known musical talent to entertain the committee.

TWO MARRIAGES FAILED

Asa Makani, a Japanese woman who came to Hawaii last March and was married to Chokichi Nakani at the Immigration Station, has not found married life all she hoped for. She says her husband beats and abuses her and has been convicted in the Police Court of assault and battery on her and fined $25. She wishes to go back to a state of single blessedness, and, accordingly, files suit for divorce.

Papers in a suit for divorce brought by Hiroshige Iwai against his wife, Tsuna Iwai, have been received from Kauai by the High Sheriff for service here. The libellant alleges unkind, harsh and tyrannical conduct on the part of his wife, desertion and adultery as the grounds of the action. The parties to the suit lived at Kapaa up to four months ago, when, according to the complaint, the wife deserted her husband, and is now in Honolulu.
